Conditions in relation to an Interment Right

The following conditions apply to the Interment Right Holder:

- An interment Right is a contract between a Cemetery Operator (Council) and a right holder permitting the right holder to undertake burials in a particular grave in a cemetery.
- An Interment Right is an 'interest' in land but the right holder does not become the owner of the land.
- Interment rights apply to burial in the earth and also burials in mausoleums, crypts and vaults. They also apply to burials of cremated remains in the earth or in a columbarium or Niche wall.
- An Interment Right allows the right holder to bury human remains in a particular grave in a cemetery and for those remains to be left undisturbed (in perpetuity).
- The Interment Right and General Conditions and in accordance with Council's Policies and Procedures and current Fees and Charges as agreed to by Council and Cemeteries and Crematoria Act 2013.
- An Interment Right may be varied, transferred, cancelled upon application to Council accordance with current Policies and Procedures.
- The right granted to the Interment Right Holder will be dealt with as part of the personal estate upon death.
- If the Interment Right holder and/or family are responsible for the maintaining of headstones or memorials in a safe and proper condition. This is not the responsibility of the cemetery.
