SNOWY MONARO REGIONAL COUNCIL

June - July 2022 Newsletter

Hello and welcome to our June/July Community Connections Newsletter.

It's certainly starting to feel a lot like winter! We made the most of the autumn weather over the last couple of months, enjoying outings to Cockington Green and the Eden Whale Museum on beautiful sunny days.

As the weather turns cooler, we'll be exploring some of the indoor activities on offer in Canberra. We have outings planned to Questacon, National Portrait Gallery, Ten Pin Bowling and the always popular 'Music at Midday' at the Canberra Theatre.

We have some great activities organised for our regular Art & Craft sessions at Bombala and Cooma to keep us busy over the colder months. Men's Group will keep it local by visiting the Jindabyne Men's Shed and Cooma Car Club. Our Lunch Clubs are an excellent opportunity to enjoy a delicious meal and good company at one of the many great eateries across our region.

A highlight of this program will be our annual Christmas in July luncheon. This year we'll gather at Adaminaby and be treated to a delicious Christmas lunch prepared by the talented team from Adaminaby CWA.

We are always looking forward to seeing new faces at our group activities, so if anything in our program interests you, please don't hesitate to call our office on 6451 1059 for more information.

Stay warm, and we look forward to seeing you!

The National Portrait Gallery is the youngest of our national cultural institutions, the idea of an Australian national portrait gallery is over a century old. In 1997, early on in his term as prime minister and again at the instigation of Gordon and Marilyn Darling, John Howard visited the National Portrait Gallery in Washington DC, encountering there an Australian tourist who expressed to him the opinion that there should be 'one of these at home'. Subsequently, the Howard government announced that the Gallery was to become an institution in its own right. Today we plan to join a 'Collection Highlights Tour' before enjoying lunch at the Portrait Café.
