Public Access to the Internet Policy

By accepting this policy, users agree that they will use the public computers (PCs) within the Snowy Monaro Regional Library (SMRL) Service, according to the following conditions:

- Parents and/or guardians of children under 16 are solely responsible for their supervision and access to the internet
- SMRL does not limit access to the Internet and has no control over the information available. Therefore, SMRL accepts no responsibility for the content of any material including accuracy, truthfulness, timeliness, completeness, usefulness or suitability
- SMRL reserves the right to refuse access to the PCs to any user who:
 - Causes the display of any offensive,
 - obscene, pornographic or inappropriate material on the screen
 - Undertakes any illegal activity or places any material on the Internet related to any illegal activity
 - Failure to comply with any rules or procedures of SMRL
 - Does not respect copyright laws and licensing agreements
- This policy should be read in conjunction with the SMRL Public Computers Conditions of Use available on each PC station
